introduction

The Office of Food and Housing Resource works to ensure student well-being by addressing food and housing insecurity at UC San Diego. Financial wellness is an important component of basic needs that contributes to a student's success.

In this coupon book, we will provide monthly updates to resources that collaboratively reduce basic needs insecurity by helping students save money on essential purchases, such as food, clothing, and household items. The benefits of couponing are short term but build towards a student's well-being, success and financial responsibility.

grocery shuttle

From the partnership of Housing, Dining, and Hospitality (HDH) along with Transportation Services and Basic Needs, UCSD's grocery shuttle is a free weekly shuttle service to neighboring dining options as well as various grocery stores. Nearby stores include 99 Ranch, Food 4 Less, Zion Market, Balboa International Market, H-Mart etc.

Students are offered two routes to shop, dine and explore new places at either La Jolla Village Square or Convoy, starting from the Village at Pepper Canyon. These services are open to all undergraduate and graduate UC San Diego Students.

food recovery

Food Recovery Network (FRN) is a national non-profit with a mission to reduce food waste and combat food insecurity through the recovery and distribution of edible food waste. There are 230 chapters at colleges and universities around the nation.

UC San Diego's chapter started in 2016 and works on and off-campus to recover food waste from dining halls, Farmer's Markets, and grocery stores to feed students and community members facing food insecurity.

The FRN distributes food at OMS and the Hub during the academic year.
